

Dear quiz league members,

Please may I apologise for the chaos and confusion that took place on last week's quiz. I sent the wrong pages in for the picture round. It was entirely my fault and I know it must have led to many people being frustrated with the quiz. May I say it was an honest mistake and an oversight on my behalf and not my fellow members of The Wagon and Horses quiz team. Again may I offer my apologies.

Yours sincerely

James Murphy
